Docket No. MC2000-2

MAIL ADVERTISING SERVICE ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONAL'S
SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO UNITED STATES
POSTAL SERVICE WITNESS LEE GARVEY (MASA/USPS-T1-14-16)
(December 16, 1999)

Pursuant to sections 25 and 26 of the Rules of Practice of the Postal Rate Commission, Mail Advertising Service Association International ("MASA") hereby submits interrogatories to United States Postal Service Witness Lee Garvey. For purposes of these interrogatories and document requests, "MOL" refers to the MOL Service that is the subject of these proceedings.

MASA/USPS-T1-14. Explain the basis for your testimony at page 10 lines 14 – 15 that "Many [users] were anxious to have more sophisticated features and options currently lacking in Mailing Online – such as full color printing." Include in your answer the number of users who expressed the desire to have more sophisticated features and options, the options and features in which each expressed an interest and the total number of users of MOL.

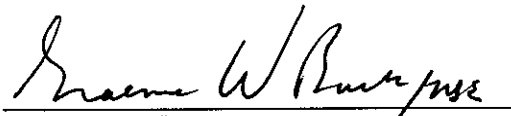

MASA/USPS-T1-15. What are the four print sites at which MOL will be launched? Will each of these sites be ready to accept print jobs on the anticipated date that MOL will be offered to the public? If so, what is the stage of negotiations with each of the printers to enter into contractual arrangements? Explain the process by which jobs will be allocated among the four print sites. Please deposit all contracts as a library reference.

MASA/USPS-T1-16. Explain where the remaining print sites will be located, the process that will be used to allocate jobs among them, the process that will be used to select the printers, and what has occurred thus far with respect to their selection. When do you expect the additional printers to be selected and ready to accept print jobs?

Respectfully submitted,

Mail Advertising Service Association
